Rationalisation of Punishment for Smuggling and Drug Trafficking

4661. SHRI PARMESHWAR KUMAR AGARWALLA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government have decided to rationalise the punishment structure for smuggling and trafficking of narcotics and psychotropic substances; and

(b) if so, what are the new stipulations?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI V. DHANANJAYA KUMAR): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Bill, namely, the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (Amendment) Bill, 1998 has been introduced in Rajya Sabha on 9.7.98 for amending the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. The Bill, inter-alia, proposes to rationalise the sentence structure to ensure that while drug traffickers who traffic in significant quantities of drugs are punished with deterrent sentences, the addicts and those who commit less serious offences are sentenced to less severe punishment. The Bill also proposes to restrict the application of strict bail provisions to those offenders who indulge in serious offences. It also seeks to abolish mandatory death sentence in respect of certain offences. It also seeks to mention certain situations whose presence should make any offence more serious for imposing higher punishment than the minimum punishment.
